Janesville, Oct. 29th, 1888.

audience on the lower floor arose from their seats and cheered, something never known before in this city.
—Every wage-worker should carefully read Mr. Fethers' speech, delivered at Lappin's hall last evening. It contains gospel truth for Janesville people—especially working men and working women.
—One more Janesville, Minn., and Janesville, Wis., have been confounded and Milwaukee papers are announcing that Mrs. Anna Snoots is under three indictments for murder in the first degree for poisoning her children.
—The board of registration in the various wards will meet for registration October 30 and 31. Every elector should see to it personally that his name is registered. If it is not registered he will not be able to vote at all Nov. 6.
—Mrs. O. J. Balch, who has been in the city for some days visiting her husband's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Balch, Cornelia street, second ward, left for her home in Postville, Idaho, this morning.
—Since pool-selling on the election began in Gage & Littlejohn's last Friday two hundred dollars worth of bets have been made. The bets are even and are divided between general results and a twelve thousand republican majority in Wisconsin.
—Does any wage-worker want his wages; his brother's wages, or his sister's wages cut down? If he does, then let him vote and use his influence for the election of Cleveland, Doe and the democratic ticket. A vote for J. B. Doe, Jr., for congress, is a direct vote for the Mills bill, and a sure reduction of wages.
—Rockford sent up nearly three hundred men last evening, and Janesville should do as well next Thursday. Tickets for the excursion will be on sale at King & Skelly's. The fare for the round trip will be but seventy-eight cents, and a delegation of over one hundred and fifty has already been enrolled.
—In a caucus of the voters of the night force of telegraph operators on the Janesville-Chicago branch of the Western Union Telegraph Co., there were forty for Harrison and Morton and sixteen for Cleveland and Thurman. There are about 500 operators employed on the day force in Chicago and it is said about 425 will vote for Harrison.
—The musical portion of the entertainment to be given at the opera house this evening is said to be very fine.
—By request of several of our citizens, Miss Tomma Hanlon, of the "He, She, Him and Her" company, will sing "The Last Rose of Summer" to-night at the opera house. Miss Hanlon has sung this beautiful song nearly 1,400 times.
—Salt Lake Tribune: By reference to our Nevada news this morning it will be seen that Col. Alex. Graham, so long the careful and successful manager of the Tintic Mining and Milling Company at Tintic, Utah, has assumed the management of the great Manhattan mine property at Austin, Colo. Graham's friends will be delighted to hear of his greater scope for his ability and usefulness, and are confident that in his new position he will add to his business laurels.
—An Arms palace horse car took from our city to day a full load of valuable trotting and draft horse stock. The heavy draft were purchased by Mr. Seigel, a wealthy brewer of Denver. The trotting bred colts were purchased by Mr. Carey Colver, a large ranchman and stock breeder near Denver, Colorado. Mr. Colver purchased from H. D. McKinney, probably as fine a young horse as ever set its state; he was bays yearling, but he stood 15½ hands high and weighed 384 pounds; was sired by Phalaris and his dam Mambrino; carried by Manbrino Star. Price, $300.
From Frank Smith Mr. Colver purchased a yearling colt by Phalaris, sired by Daniel Lambert. Price, $500.
Mr. Seigel purchased from Joe Owen, of Footville, his young trotting gelding, one of the most promising in this section. Price, $750. Messrs. Seigel and Colver accompanied their stock.

OUR LOCAL INDUSTRIES.
The Great Crowd at Lappin's Hall for the Street Parade.
The Able and Pointed Address by Ogden H. Fethers.
Lappin's hall was crowded with people early in the evening and waited patiently for hours for the conclusion of the street parade. It was near ten o'clock when the rear of the marching column reached Lappin's hall and broke ranks. Very few additional people could gain admission to the hall at that hour. There were many ladies present and it was a representative class of Janesville people. After a patriotic melody by the Bower City Band had been rendered, Captain Elmer Norcross called the meeting to order and introduced the speaker of the evening—Ogden H. Fethers, Esq.
Mr. Fethers spoke for about an hour, reviewing the issues of the political campaign just now closing. Owing to the late hour he was compelled to hurry over the ground. It would be an injustice to him to give a synopsis of this able and pointed address; nothing short of the entire speech would be justice to him or the reader. It was one of the ablest of the republican arguments in favor of the protection policy of the republican party that has been delivered in Janesville, and that has been delivered in any community in Wisconsin.
The Gazette intended to publish the entire speech to-day, but owing to lack of time and other pressing matters, it is unable to do so. Speaking of our local manufacturing industries, Mr. Fethers said:
"I wish to call your attention to a company in our own beautiful city; the city that we all love as we do our lives. I go up and down the length and breadth of this land, from one end of it to the other, and I say anywhere of two or three, or four, or five, or six, or seven, or eight, or nine, or ten, or eleven, or
